

In 2021, Corporations Gave Over $740,000 To The Senators From Texas, Florida, And Iowa—States That Passed Voting Restrictions Last Year—As Those Senators Blocked Federal Voting Rights Bills That Could Reverse Discriminatory State Voter Suppression Efforts

SUMMARY: As Texas, Florida, and Iowa passed restrictive voting bills in 2021, their respective U.S. senators refused to support federal voting rights legislation—which could prevent restrictive voting bills at the state level and expand access to the ballot box—while corporations flooded their campaigns with donations.

In 2021, Texas passed two bills, HB 3920 and SB 1, that would make voting more difficult, particularly for communities of color and those with disabilities. Meanwhile, in the same year Texas' senators, Ted Cruz and John Cornyn, repeatedly blocked federal voting rights legislation that could have combated state voter restrictions as they both raked in campaign contributions from companies:

- Corporations like Toyota, American Airlines, and Cisco Systems donated over $52,000 to Sen. John Cornyn in 2021.
- Throughout the year, Sen. Ted Cruz received $7,500 in corporate donations.

In 2021, Florida passed SB 90. The new restrictive voting bill, which some claimed aimed to restrict voters of color, would place new limits on voter registration, mail-in voting, and drop boxes. Meanwhile, in the same year, Florida's senators, Marco Rubio and Rick Scott, voted against federal voting rights legislation that could have combated state voter restrictions as they both raised thousands in campaign contributions from companies:

- In 2021, businesses—such as Disney, CVS, Comcast, and Walmart—gave Sen. Marco Rubio over $514,000.
- Sen. Rick Scott received $3,500 in corporate donations last year.

In 2021, Iowa passed SF 413, a sweeping voter restriction bill that shortens early voting, cuts time periods for absentee ballot requests, limits drop box locations, decreases hours for in person voting, and restricts acceptable methods of ballot return. Meanwhile, in the same year Iowa's senators, Joni Ernst and Chuck Grassley, blocked two pieces of federal voting rights legislation that could have combated state voter restrictions as they both raked in campaign contributions from companies:

- Corporations donated $23,000 to Sen. Joni Ernst over the past year.
- In 2021, businesses like Amazon, Dell, and Ford gave Sen. Chuck Grassley $140,000.

A healthy democracy is good for business, corporate America acts against their best interests as they bolster the coffers of the politicians blocking voting reform legislation from passing.

In Late 2021, Senate Republicans Blocked Two Federal Voting Rights Bills — The John Lewis Voting Rights Advancement Act And The Freedom To Vote Act — That Would Expand Access To The Ballot Box And Could Stop Restrictive And Discriminatory State Voting Bills.

The John R. Lewis Voting Rights Advancement Act—Which Senate Republicans, Excluding Sen. Murkowski, Blocked—Would “Modernize And Restore Preclearance,” Prevent Laws That Unevenly Burden Voters Of Color, And Limit Gerrymandering.

November 2021: Senate Republicans, Except For Sen. Murkowski, Blocked The John Lewis Voting Rights Advancement Act With A 50-49 Procedural Vote On Whether To Open Debate On The Bill.

“Senate Republicans blocked the John Lewis Voting Rights Act from advancing on Wednesday when the Senate took a procedural vote on whether to open debate on the legislation. The final tally was 50 to 49 with GOP Sen. Lisa Murkowski of Alaska voting with Democrats in favor.” CNN, [11/3/21]

The Hill: The John Lewis Voting Rights Advancement Act Would “Modernize And Restore Preclearance,” Prevent Laws That Unevenly Burden Voters Of Color, Limit Gerrymandering, And Ensure Politicians Can’t “Handpick Their Voters And Entrench Their Power.” “The John Lewis Voting Rights Advancement Act would modernize and restore preclearance. It would prevent voting laws that unevenly burden voters of color. It would take important steps to limit gerrymandering and make sure that politicians don’t get to handpick their voters and entrench their power. In short, it would be the most significant federal expansion of voting rights in a generation.” The Hill, [9/3/21]

The Freedom To Vote Act, Which Senate Republicans Have Blocked, Would Restore Voting Rights To Formally Incarcerated Individuals, Ensure People With Disabilities “Have The Same Access To Absentee Ballots As Other Voters,” And Counters “Long Lines And Related Discriminatory Practices.”

October 2021: Senate Republicans Blocked The Freedom To Vote Act’s Passage. “Senate Republicans blocked another voting rights bill Wednesday, as some on the left call to change the chamber’s rules to allow the Democratic Party to unilaterally change federal election law. The vote was 49 to 51. The Democratic bill, known as the Freedom to Vote Act, would make it easier to register to vote, make Election Day a public holiday, ensure states have early voting for federal elections and allow all voters to request mail-in ballots.” CNN, [10/20/21]

Brennan Center For Justice: “The Freedom To Vote Act Represents A Major Step Forward In The Push To Enact Comprehensive Legislation To Strengthen American Democracy, Promote Racial Justice And Equity For All Americans.” “The Freedom to Vote Act represents a major step forward in the push to enact comprehensive legislation to strengthen American democracy, promote racial justice and equity for all Americans, and thwart the assault on voting rights taking place in the states. It would set national standards to protect the freedom to vote, end partisan redistricting, ensure sound election administration, and fix our broken campaign finance system.” Brennan Center for Justice, [9/20/21]

The Freedom To Vote Act Would Restore “Federal Voting Rights To Formerly Incarcerated Citizens Upon Their Release” And Removes “The Vestiges Of Restrictions Born Out Of Jim Crow.” “The Freedom to Vote Act represents a major step forward in the push to enact comprehensive legislation to strengthen American democracy, promote racial justice and equity for all Americans, and thwart the assault on voting rights taking place in the states. [...]The bill restores federal voting rights to formerly incarcerated citizens upon their release, establishing a bright-line standard to replace the confusing patchwork of state laws and removing the vestiges of restrictions born out of Jim Crow.” Brennan Center for Justice, [9/20/21]

The Freedom To Vote Act “Would Require Each State To Ensure That Individuals With Disabilities Have The Same Access To Absentee Ballots And Applications As Other Voters, As Well As Making Them Electronically Accessible To Voters With Disabilities.” “The Freedom to Vote Act would address some of the biggest challenges to voting access that Americans with disabilities face. The bill would require each state to ensure that individuals with disabilities have the same access to absentee ballots and applications as other voters, as well as making them electronically accessible to voters with disabilities, among other safeguards.” Brennan Center for Justice, [9/20/21]

The Freedom To Vote Act Counters “Long Lines And Related Discriminatory Practices” by ensuring “Lines Last No Longer Than 30 Minutes” So That “Individuals Subjected To Excessive Lines On Election Day — Most Often Black And Latino Voters —” Are Protected From That Discrimination “Countering long lines and related discriminatory practices: The bill creates protections for individuals subjected to excessive lines on Election Day — most often Black and Latino voters — by requiring states to ensure that lines last no longer than 30 minutes and restricting states from prohibiting donations of food or water to voters waiting in line.” Brennan Center for Justice, [9/20/21]

In 2021, As Texas Passed Voter Suppression Bills That Make It Harder For People Of Color To Vote, Sens. Ted Cruz And John Cornyn Raked In At Least $59,750 In Corporate Donations While Refusing To Support Federal Voting Rights Legislation That Could Stop States From Passing Restrictive And Discriminatory Voting Bills.

Texas HB 3920, Which Became Law In September 2021, Makes It Harder To Apply For Mail-In Ballots For Medical Reasons, Which Could Discriminate Against People With Disabilities.

HB 3920 Makes It Harder To Apply For Mail-In Ballots For Medical Reasons. “Then there's House Bill 3920, authored by Republican state Rep. Jay Dean of Longview. It makes it harder to apply for a mail-in ballot for medical reasons.” Houston Public Media, [8/25/21]

HB 3920 Went Into Effect On Sept. 1, 2021. Texas Legislature Online, Accessed [1/11/22]

Disability Advocates Point Out That The “Law May Discriminate Against People Who Have Disabilities That Can Flare Up Without Warning.” “Disability advocates say the new law may discriminate against people with disabilities that can flare up without warning, like multiple sclerosis.” Houston Public Media, 8/25/21]

Texas SB 1, Which Went Into Effect In December 2021, Has Also Been Criticized For Potentially Stifling People Of Color’s Ability To Vote By Adding “A Number Of New Restrictions And Criminal Penalties Related To Voting.”

SB 1 Went Into Effect In Texas On Dec. 2, 2021, Adding “A Number Of New Restrictions And Criminal Penalties Related To Voting.” “A law that adds a number of new restrictions and criminal penalties related to voting kicks in today in Texas. The law, Senate Bill 1, was the cause of months of tension between state lawmakers.” KUT 90.5, [12/2/21]

- SB 1 Restricts “When Voting Locations Can Be Open.” “SB 1 also places new restrictions on when voting locations can be open. Now counties have to conduct elections during early voting on each weekday that is not a state holiday for at least nine hours, and those hours are restricted to between 6 a.m. and 10 p.m.” KUT 90.5, [12/2/21]
- SB 1 Places Restrictions On “Providing Assistance To Voters, Including Language Assistance And Help For People With Disabilities.” “Among the more controversial measures are new restrictions around providing assistance to voters, including language assistance and help for people with disabilities. As of today, people who assist voters have to disclose their relationship to the voter and how they plan to help them. They also have to sign an oath and face possible criminal penalties if they violate that oath.” KUT 90.5, [12/2/21]

HEADLINE: Texas’ SB 1 Discriminates Against Voters of Color. Lawyers Committee For Civil Rights Under Law, [9/7/21]

Lawyers Committee For Civil Rights Under Law: SB 1 Was Passed “With The Intent To Suppress “ The Votes Of “Black Voters And Other Voters Of Color” After Their High Turnout For The 2020 Election. “The Texas State Legislature’s SB 1 legislation violates provisions of the Texas Constitution that protect the right to vote, the right to freedom of speech and expression, the right to due process, and the right to equal protection under law, according to a lawsuit filed Tuesday by civil rights advocates against Gov. Greg Abbott, Attorney General Kevin Paxton, Deputy Secretary of State Joe Esparza, and the future secretary of state, once that position is filled. Despite the hardships of voting during a global pandemic, during the 2020 general election, Texas saw one of its highest voter turnouts in decades, particularly among Black voters and other voters of color. SB 1 was passed on the heels of the successful 2020 election, with the intent to suppress these votes.” Lawyers Committee For Civil Rights Under Law, [9/7/21]

The Freedom To Vote Act And The John Lewis Voting Rights Advancement Act Would Both Help Combat Attacks On The Right To Vote At The State Level.

Brennan Center For Justice: The Freedom To Vote Act “Would Ensure Minimum National Standards For Voting Access For Every American.” “The Freedom to Vote Act is a broad package of voting, redistricting, election security, and campaign finance reforms that would ensure minimum national standards for voting access for every American. It would also prevent partisans from sabotaging election results.” Brennan Center, [12/20/21]

- CNN: The Freedom To Vote Act “Would Make It Easier To Register To Vote, Make Election Day A Public Holiday, Ensure States Have Early Voting For Federal Elections And Allow All Voters To Request Mail-In Ballots.” “The Democratic bill, known as the Freedom to Vote Act, would make it easier to register to vote, make Election Day a public holiday, ensure states have early voting for federal elections and allow all voters to request mail-in ballots. The measure would also bolster security on voting systems, overhaul how congressional districts are redrawn and impose new disclosures on donations to outside groups active in political campaigns.” CNN, [10/20/21]

Brennan Center For Justice: “The John Lewis Voting Rights Advancement Act Would Prevent Discriminatory Practices And Rules In Voting From Being Implemented In States And Localities Where Discrimination Is Persistent And Pervasive.” “The John Lewis Voting Rights Advancement Act would prevent discriminatory practices and rules in voting from being implemented in states and localities where discrimination is persistent and pervasive, protecting access to the vote for all eligible voters, regardless of race, color, or membership in language minority groups. And it would restore voters’ ability to challenge discriminatory laws nationwide.” Brennan Center, [12/20/21]

- CNN: The John Lewis Voting Rights Advancement Act Would Allow “The Justice Department To Block Certain Jurisdictions With A History Of Voter Discrimination From Changing Their Voting Rules.” “The House passed a bill Tuesday increasing the power of the federal government and racial minorities to block or challenge election rules they find discriminatory. [...]The bill would restore an aspect of the 1965 Voting Rights Act that allowed the Justice Department to block certain jurisdictions with a history of voter discrimination from changing their voting rules, after conservative justices on the Supreme Court ruled in 2013’s Shelby County v. Holder that the formula used was outdated.” CNN, [8/24/21]

[...] 'We are not here because we have a problem with our elections. We are here because the Republican former president lost his re-election in November, and, rather than admitting his defeat, he spun a web of lies, radicalized those lies, in an attempt to explain away the loss,' Democratic state Rep. In 2021, As Iowa Passed A Sweeping Voter Suppression Bill, Sens. Joni Ernst And Chuck Grassley Raked In At Least $163,000 In Corporate Donations While Refusing To Support Federal Voting Rights Legislation That Could Stop States From Passing Restrictive And Discriminatory Voting Bills.

In Early 2021, Iowa Passed A Sweeping Restrictive Voting Bill That Shortens Early Voting By Nine Days, Cuts Time Periods For Absentee Ballot Requests, Limits Drop Box Locations, And Shortens Hours For In Person Voting.

In March 2021, Iowa Gov. Kim Reynolds Signed SF 413, Which Is “Sweeping Iowa Election Legislation That Would Severely Limit Access To The Ballot,” Into Law. “Gov. Kim Reynolds (R) signed sweeping Iowa election legislation that would severely limit access to the ballot into law on Monday afternoon, after it passed both Republican-held chambers of the legislature. Advancing along party lines at every step of the process, S.F. 413 took less than two weeks to arrive at the Governor’s desk, as Republicans hurried through slates of new voting restrictions after the 2020 elections.” Democracy Docket, [3/8/21]

Iowa SF 413 Shortens Early Voting By Nine Days, Cuts Time Periods For Absentee Ballot Requests, Limits Drop Box Locations, And Shortens Hours For In Person Voting. “Senate File 413, which changed Iowa’s election proceedings, was signed into Iowa law on March 8, 2021. [...] Iowans still may vote early, but starting only 20 days before Election Day. Previously, Iowans could begin voting 29 days before Election Day. [...] Iowans no longer will see a line outside of their precinct poll at 9 p.m. during general elections. They’ll see it an hour earlier when the new law closes the polls at 8 p.m. That will shorten the time to vote on Election Day by an hour. [...] Another aspect of the new law forces all absentee ballots to arrive at the local county auditor’s office before the polls close. Even if the ballot is postmarked before that date, the ballot will not count if it arrives after polls close. [...] Voters may place ballots in dropboxes now, but only in one designated dropbox that is under video surveillance per county.” Daily Iowan, [6/16/21]

The Freedom To Vote Act And The John Lewis Voting Rights Advancement Act Would Both Help Combat Attacks On The Right To Vote At The State Level.

Brennan Center For Justice: The Freedom To Vote Act “Would Ensure Minimum National Standards For Voting Access For Every American.” “The Freedom to Vote Act is a broad package of voting, redistricting, election security, and campaign finance reforms that would ensure minimum national standards for voting access for every American. It would also prevent partisans from sabotaging election results.” Brennan Center, [12/20/21]

- CNN: The Freedom To Vote Act “Would Make It Easier To Register To Vote, Make Election Day A Public Holiday, Ensure States Have Early Voting For Federal Elections And Allow All Voters To Request Mail-In Ballots.” “The Democratic bill, known as the Freedom to Vote Act, would make it easier to register to vote, make Election Day a public holiday, ensure states have early voting for federal elections and allow all voters to request mail-in ballots. The measure would also bolster security on voting systems, overhaul how congressional districts are redrawn and impose new disclosures on donations to outside groups active in political campaigns.” CNN, [10/20/21]

Brennan Center For Justice: “The John Lewis Voting Rights Advancement Act Would Prevent Discriminatory Practices And Rules In Voting From Being Implemented In States And Localities Where Discrimination Is Persistent And Pervasive.” “The John Lewis Voting Rights Advancement Act would prevent discriminatory practices and rules in voting from being implemented in states and localities where discrimination is persistent and pervasive, protecting access to the vote for all eligible voters, regardless of race, color, or membership in language minority groups. And it would restore voters’ ability to challenge discriminatory laws nationwide.” Brennan Center, [12/20/21]

- CNN: The John Lewis Voting Rights Advancement Act Would Allow “The Justice Department To Block Certain Jurisdictions With A History Of Voter Discrimination From Changing Their Voting Rules.” “The House passed a bill Tuesday increasing the power of the federal government and racial minorities to block or challenge election rules they find discriminatory. [...]The bill would restore an aspect of the 1965 Voting Rights Act that allowed the Justice Department to block certain jurisdictions with a history of voter discrimination from changing their voting rules, after conservative justices on the Supreme Court ruled in 2013’s Shelby County v. Holder that the formula used was outdated.” CNN, [8/24/21]
